

This course is designed to help students understand all the various components of successful leadership. Student will learn what the biggest differences are between managers and leaders, how to put the leadership building blocks into place, and how to adapt the language of influence. Some of the areas covered will be: the ideal leader, support systems, risk-taking, vision, relationship building, and listening effectively.

Audience: Leadership and Management Professionals

Prerequisites: None.

Number of Days: 1 day

- 1. Leadership vs. Management
 - Leadership today
 - The ideal leader
 - Debunking the myths
 - Defining managers and leaders
 - How to begin to transition to leadership
 - Power and leadership
 - Support system
- 2. Building Blocks of Leadership
 - Factor one: Drive
 - Factor two: Self-knowledge
 - Factor three: Risk-taking
 - Factor four: Vision
 - Factor five: Change master
 - Factor six: Relationship building
 - Factor seven: Failure
 - Factor eight: Competence
- 3. The Language of Influence
 - Listen up
 - Framing a message
 - Language of influence